World Kindness Day - November 13, 2017

Most should be familiar with the saying "credit unions are helping here"; if not, it was the acts of our employees that brought it to light since the day NDCU celebrated community volunteers.

To celebrate kindness, community and co-operation, each employee played a role in giving by identifying a volunteer in the community that stands-out to them. NDCU donated $100 to the local organization that the chosen volunteer is affiliated with, in the name of that community champion.
